

RITHVIK RAJA

Singer | Educator | Composer | Curator

Rithvik Raja, a leading Karnatik musician, is celebrated for his artistic intensity, musical sensitivity, and his ability to seamlessly blend traditional values with contemporary sensibilities. Rooted in the rich textures of Karnatik music, his work is defined by a constant process of introspection, creativity, and an unwavering dedication to his craft. His art is both deeply personal and universally resonant, revealing layers of experience and emotional depth that transcend the conventional.

Mentored by TM Krishna for over 20 years, Rithvik's art reflects his life experiences and reimagines aesthetic soundscapes, artistic collaborations and creative boundaries in his own distinctive style. With over two decades of professional expertise, he has captivated global audiences, delivered lectures, conducted workshops, and contributed to panels and journals. His numerous awards and recognitions attest to his exceptional achievements and steadfast commitment to the art form.

A tireless advocate for the arts, Rithvik works closely with organisations to foster greater awareness and appreciation of Karnatik music. He writes regularly on a range of subjects, earning widespread acclaim from connoisseurs and critics alike. An extraordinary musician, Rithvik continues to push boundaries, explore new dimensions and make a significant impact on the world of Karnatik music.

His dedication to creating awareness for the arts ensures his influence will resonate for generations to come.
